

ADE Reading Conference for Arkansas Schools

A Focus on Dyslexia and the Science of Teaching Reading

Monday, March 6, 2017– Tuesday, March 7, 2017

8:00 - 3:30 daily

Hot Springs Convention Center, 134 Convention Boulevard
Hot Springs, Arkansas 71901

Educators will hear from both nationally renowned speakers and Arkansas educators on the science of teaching reading. Sessions will address core instructional practices, interventions, and content knowledge for phonemic awareness, phonics, syllables and syllabication, morphology, fluency, comprehension, and vocabulary. Educators will also have the opportunity to hear presentations about dyslexia and related reading disabilities, IDEA and 504 regulations, Gifted and Talented, and English Learners.

This conference is free for Arkansas Public and Charter School Educators. Individual schools may send up to five team members. Registered participants that do not attend will be billed $100 for food expense.

Participant Registration: <http://www.conftrac.com/ADE17/attendee>

Vendor link: <http://tinyurl.com/2017vendors>

Presentation Proposal link (Submission deadline is Feb. 3, 2017):
<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/ADE2017RDGCONF>

Hotel links: Ask for conference rates. A limited number of rooms are available.
Embassy Suites Click on the link or call 1-501-624-9200.

Please direct all questions to Robert Caringola at (501) 682-4219 or robert.caringola@arkansas.gov.